FULLSTACK DEVELOPER

As a Software Engineer with a passion for creativity and logic, I excel in coding, blending art with precision. My realtor background sharpened my teamwork and problem-solving skills, crucial in tech. I began my programming journey independently, learning the basics of CSS, HTML, JavaScript, and Python. I then decided to formalize my training through the Software Engineering Immersive course at General Assembly, further honing my skills and knowledge. Transitioning from real estate, I'm driven by a lifelong interest in technology and the pursuit of new, dynamic challenges.
